Privacy Policy

Prescient acknowledges and respects your right to privacy and is committed to keeping your information confidential.

Personal Information

In general, you can visit our website without having to divulge any personal information about yourself. However, while using this website you may provide information about yourself or it may be collected by us.

You may update personal information at any time by e-mailing Prescient. You may also view your personal information that we hold and correct it if necessary, on written request to Prescient.

Access to your personal information held by Prescient may also be requested by yourself or third parties. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 regulates and sets out the procedure for such a request and under what circumstances such access may be refused.

Use of Information

Personal information is used as is necessary and appropriate in the normal course of business to provide the products and services you have requested. We may retain any information for purposes of investment transaction processing and administration, to monitor our site or to communicate directly with you.

Sharing of Information

All personal information supplied to Prescient or collected by us is kept strictly confidential and will not be given or sold to any third parties. Prescient will disclose or report personal information if and when required to do so by law or any regulatory authority, and to our employees, or agents who require such information to carry out their duties.

Security of Information

We take all reasonable steps to protect your personal information, including the use of encryption technology. We can however not guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us electronically and you do so at your own risk.

Electronic Communications and Records

By visiting this website or communicating with us by electronic means, you consent to receiving communications electronically and agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and all other communications transmitted by electronic means satisfies any legal requirement, including but not limited to the requirement that such communication should be "in writing".
